

PORTFOLIO 504

1. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a complex internal layout. The main entrance is located on the right side of the building, and the main staircase is located on the left side. The building is divided into several sections, each with its own set of rooms and corridors. The building is surrounded by a large parking lot, and there are several other buildings nearby.

2. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a complex internal layout. The main entrance is located on the right side of the building, and the main staircase is located on the left side. The building is divided into several sections, each with its own set of rooms and corridors. The building is surrounded by a large parking lot, and there are several other buildings nearby.

